

Social Emotional Resources You Can Access Just When You Need Them

2018	Location
September 11	PaTTAN East
September 11	PaTTAN Pittsburgh
September 13	PaTTAN Harrisburg

9:00 AM – 12:15 PM

Course Description:

If you are working with young children and need resources to support their social-emotional development then this session is for you! This is an opportunity to explore online social and emotional resources available to help address the needs of the young children and families. Match content and format to find just what you need, just when you need it. Bring your own device (BYOD) so that you can dig in and explore. Resources include tools to prevent suspension and expulsion, coaches' kits matched to observation/assessment results, guides for families about teaching self-control and more. Learn about center-based and home-based supports that are available

Training Outcomes:

Participants will be able to:

1. Demonstrate how to access free social emotional resources for staff and families that are available on demand.
2. Match learning needs to specific tools to address those needs.
3. Utilize three or more resources within one week of completing this session

Presenter:
