

Young readers will be introduced to two books as part of the 2019 PA One Book early literacy program.

Free PQAS Pennsylvania One Book Professional Development Workshop

Presented by Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh and Children's Museum of Pittsburgh

Tuesday, April 9 | 6:15 – 7:45 pm

Children's Museum of Pittsburgh
10 Children's Way, Pittsburgh, PA 15212

Light dinner will be provided

Register at:

<https://bit.ly/2Y4Ec9M>

Explore early learning activities that enhance this year's PA One Book selections:

Barnyard Banter by Denise Fleming

For children birth – 36 months

Not a Box by Antoinette Portis

For children age 3 – 5 years

Learn how to participate in a One Northside art project that highlights child care providers on the Northside!

Attendees will take away:

- A free copy of each One Book and a maker kit
- Ideas for One Book-inspired circle times
- Fun strategies that support early literacy development, STEM skills and family engagement
- Prizes

One Book is a statewide initiative that promotes the importance of early literacy development for children ages birth to five years. Each April, Pennsylvania celebrates a book whose story and illustrations encourage children's imaginations and love of reading to build a community of readers.

In partnership with Trying Together, early childhood educators will receive PQAS credits for their attendance.

For questions, contact Erin Zambataro zambataroe@carnegielibrary.org or 412.622.8877.

