

Spring/Summer 2019 Series:

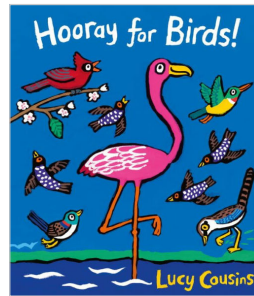

Raising Readers Together Club

Wednesdays: Willie Tee's Barber Shop
7205 Frankstown Avenue 5:30-7:00 p.m.

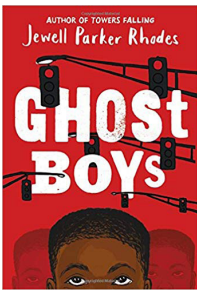

Thursdays: The Homewood Early Learning Hub
7219 Kelly Street 5:30-7:00 p.m.

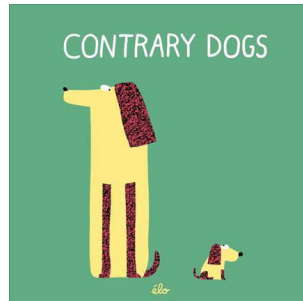

4/17, 24 & 5/1
Clayton Byrd Goes Underground
by Rita Williams-Garcia

4/18
Hooray for Birds!
by Lucy Cousins

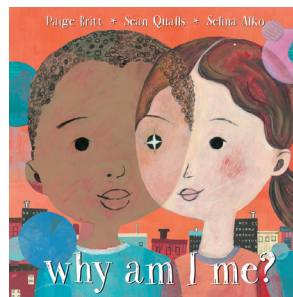

5/8, 15 & 22
Ghost Boys
by Jewell Parker Rhodes

4/25
Contrary Dogs
by Elo

5/29 & 6/5
Flying Lessons & Other Stories
by Ellen Oh

5/2
Why Am I Me?
by Paige Britt

The Raising Readers Together Club runs weekly and explores the importance of acceptance, equality, and tolerance through reading. Dinner, discussion, and family activities are provided.

Wednesday's program is suitable for children ages six and older.

5/9
The Most Magnificent Thing
by Ashley Spires

Continued over page

Weekly Themes for
Thursday sessions

WEEK ONE

Raising a Reader

WEEK TWO

Read it Again!

WEEK THREE

Family Feelings

WEEK FOUR

Literacy in the Digital Age

WEEK FIVE

Celebrating Diversity

WEEK SIX

Reading & Writing
Connections

WEEK SEVEN

What's Happening at the Library

WEEK EIGHT

Poetry Party

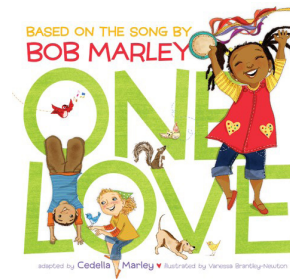

For more info, contact:

Cynthia Battle

cynthia@tryingtogether.org

412.421.3889

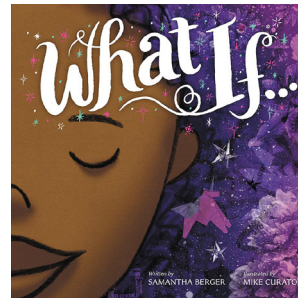

Thursdays: The Homewood Early Learning Hub continued

5/16

One Love

by Cedella Marley

5/23

What If...

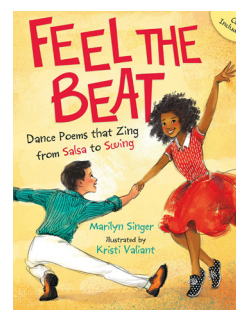

by Samantha Berger

5/30

Here, George!

by Sandra Boynton

6/6

Feel the Beat

by Marilyn Singer

The Raising Readers Together Club runs weekly and explores the importance of acceptance, equality, and tolerance through reading. Dinner, discussion, and family activities are provided.

Thursday's program is suitable for children ages five and younger.

Supporting the work of early childhood

tryingtogether.org