Description:

Domestic violence harms many families with young children. Early childhood teachers and caregivers can help children heal. Programs can support healthy relationships and stop domestic violence in their communities. Please join our webinar to learn how early childhood programs can help families affected by domestic violence. We will share strategies, tools and resources created in partnership with The National Center on Parent, Family and Community Engagement.

This webinar will be co-sponsored by Promising Futures: National Capacity Building Center to Expand Services for Children, Youth and Abused Parents and the National Resource Center on Health and Domestic Violence \(HRC\).

Presenters:

Virginia Duplessis, MSW, Program Director, Futures Without Violence

Mie Fukuda, MA, Senior Program Specialist, Futures Without Violence
