Kick off the Month of the Young Child with Trying Together and the Pittsburgh Pirates!

Trying Together will be spotlighted as the Nonprofit of the Game as the Pittsburgh Pirates take on the New York Yankees on Sunday, April 6, 2025, at 1:35 p.m.

For this game, a portion of each ticket purchased will help Trying Together's mission of supporting high-quality care and education for young children by providing advocacy, community resources, and professional growth opportunities for the needs and rights of children, their families, and the individuals who interact with them.

Children can run the bases like the pros after the game, weather permitting.
